ABOUT ECHOES

Echoes is an anthology project that exists to humanize the lived experiences of male survivors of sexual trauma. Often time men's stories go unheard and they are forced to suffer in silence and shame. Echoes is a book that shares the truths about the effects of sexual trauma and the impact it has on the lives of men. In this book, you will hear the stories of men from all walks of life and given a framework to understand sexual violence. This book is ground-breaking and will open up the eyes and hearts of survivors of sexual violence and serve as a roadmap on their own journeys to wholeness.

ROBERT MARSHALL

Robert Marshall is and has been a highly influential and sought-after speaker for over 15 years. He's captivated, challenged, and inspired audiences from around the world to think big, but to dream bigger. His genuine love for people coupled with his unique ability to touch the minds and hearts of those he speaks to is what has set him apart from anyone else. Robert is as transparent as they come as a survivor of fatherlessness, bullying, and sexual abuse he is able to connect and speak to an array of challenges that many face in their daily life. He struggled through traditional high school and had to relocate to an alternative school to graduate, with the support of mentors he was able to graduate early from high school and has now earned multiple degrees in the field of educational leadership.

Robert's passion for helping boys and men achieve healing and personal abundance is powered by his vision to see all people set free from unjust and inequitable systems, socioeconomic walls, emotional blockages, and traumatic boundaries caused by adverse childhood and life experiences. Marshall truly believes every human has the ability to walk in total wholeness and unlock their greatness.

Marshall is a leading expert, author, and one of the premier male empowerment speakers in the educational and wellness arenas. Through his transformational and relational methods of speaking and coaching, he has empowered thousands around the world and has made it his life's work to empower boys and men to become the best versions of themselves.

Robert has studied at the University of Chester in the United Kingdom, Hope College in Zambia, Africa, North Park University in Chicago, IL Purdue University in West Lafayette, IN, and Duke Theological Seminary in Durham, North Carolina. He currently is pursuing his Doctorate in Organizational Development. At home, he is known as husband to Jackie and daddy to Caleb, Caden, and Ariyah.

ABOUT IAmMan Inc

WHAT WE DO

We are a non-profit organization that strengthens men. We help men connect with themselves and others to lead more successful, fulfilling lives. We aim to support as many men as we can over the next five years. We are building a safe space where every man's story matters. As a 501c(3), we invest profits and donations directly into operational costs, programming, and the technology required to inspire and strengthen the lives of men, their families, and communities.

OUR VISION & SCOPE

We are a resource hub for men who are navigating the various phases of life and manhood. We advocate, educate, coach and empower men on how to redefine their narratives by taking back their power to chose whom they desire to be. We provide the space and roadmap for them to reclaim their authentic manhood and masculinity while providing resources that enable them to become whole contributors to their families and communities.
